Some more glimpses of the event:

Outcome of the event:

After participation in the event, our students gained with –

- Attention and appreciation for music and singing talent among them.
- Students singing had caused their brain to perform multiple tasks at once and help to develop memory. From remembering lyrics to remembering a cue to start singing, their brain learns to be able to handle more tasks simultaneously.
- Students singing had encouraged deep breathing and getting more oxygen to the brain.

WISH U ALL, THE BEST.
